

Jennifer White joins the CMH Foundation

The Foundation announced on June 30th that Jennifer White will be its new Executive Director. She brings more than 17 years of experience in health care and non-profit management, including a successful capital fundraising campaign for both Toronto Grace Hospital and Scarborough Hospital. Jennifer earned her BA and MA at Queen's University and looks forward to joining the Foundation at a very exciting time in its mission. She starts on August 2, 2011.
